

Consulting

Typical Schedule

Typically, the consultation weekend will consist of Friday night and Saturday until about 4:00 PM but I am happy to adjust the schedule to whatever serves you and your leaders best. At times, churches will choose to have me stay and preach on Sunday. If so, I am happy to discuss a sermon topic that you think would serve your church family best.

Guidelines

- If flying, allow Brad to purchase his own airline ticket (I don't fly first class 😊) and reimburse him for the ticket. If driving, please reimburse him for mileage.
- Cover the cost of Brad staying in a hotel during his time with you – preferably one near the church or event site.
- Provide a large dry board as well as a large screen for PPT projection during our times of discussion.
- Honorarium and additional expenses will be discussed before confirming a date.

Booking in Advance

Because of my primary calling and responsibilities as Lead Pastor of Grace Fellowship Church (leading, preaching, counseling, etc.), I can only accept a limited number of outside invitations each year. Additionally, since most churches are interested in events during the Spring and Fall each year, weekends that I'm available fill up quickly, so that I am usually booking events 12-18 mos. in advance or longer. E-mail bradbigney@graceky.org to learn more about booking a consultation.
