

Gospel Treason Conference

Typical Schedule

A typical conference consists of Friday night and Saturday until about 4:00 PM but I am happy to adjust the conference to whatever serves you and your church family best. At times, churches will invite me to stay and preach on Sunday. If so, I typically preach a message from Isaiah 40 titled 'Behold, Your God,' that will serve the broader church family who did not attend the conference. The sermon is also a fitting conclusion to the conference that was so focused on digging into our own hearts.

Guidelines

- Be willing to cover the cost of promoting the event and take care of all registration, etc.
- If flying, allow Brad to purchase his own airline ticket (he doesn't fly first class 😊) and reimburse him for the ticket. If driving, please reimburse him for mileage.
- Cover the cost of Brad staying in a hotel during the conference – preferably one near the church or event site, as well as one that has a breakfast and exercise room.
- Be willing to purchase, directly from the publisher (P&R), a case of Brad's book, Gospel Treason, and then be responsible for having a table on site at the conference to sell them. Typically, selling the books at $10/each will cover your cost You can purchase a case direct from P&R by calling 1-800-631-0094, ext. 1 (Order Dept.) or email [sales@prpbooks.com.]
- Be willing to print outlines/homework assignments that correspond to each conference session in a handout or notebook format, so that registrants can track with the main points, quotes, and do some follow-up homework.
- Honorarium and additional expenses will be discussed before confirming a conference date.

Booking in Advance

Because of my primary calling and responsibilities as Lead Pastor of Grace Fellowship Church (leading, preaching, counseling, etc.), I can only accept a limited number of outside invitations each year. Additionally, since most churches are interested in events during the Spring and Fall each year, weekends that I'm available fill up quickly, so that I am usually booking conferences 12-18 mos. in advance or longer. E-mail bradbigney@graceky.org to learn more about booking this conference.
