

What If ??????????

Someone stays late after small group helping you put away chairs and clean up the kitchen. They seem ill at ease and finally pull you aside and say, “Can I talk to you? I really need help. I am struggling right now. I have this nagging fear that I’m not a Christian. I don’t always do what I know I should. I’ll feel bad for a while and make a new commitment to try harder, but then I fall again. One of the areas I continue to struggle in is with pornography. Will I just always be this way? Should I just stop fighting? Maybe I have committed the unpardonable sin.

How can I change? What do you think? Is there any hope for me? Can you help me?

You have 5 minutes to decide how you should proceed and you must have at least one verse to motivate / guide your decision

- Where should you start?
- How would you direct this person? What would you tell them is their biblical responsibility in this matter? What verses would you use?
- How does a person change? What does the Bible teach?
- What about the ‘unpardonable sin’? What verses would you use?
- How would you give them hope? What verses?
